WORKSHOP OUTLINE

We will be working with natural forms - both dried and living flora, to create still life compositions using a variety of mixed media, both wet and dry. Pens and pencils, paints and inks, graphite, charcoal and pastels. We will also experiment with adding some collage for texture.

Composition will be discussed, along with design elements of COLOUR, TEXTURE and LINE. The emphasis will be on playful experimentation!

Further details and a suggested materials list will be sent to you on enrolment in this workshop.

MAXINE WADE B.Ed. Visual Arts Dip. Ed

After a professional career of 30 years teaching Art in schools, for the last 20 years Maxine has tutored adult classes in watercolour painting, drawing and life drawing. She has taught ongoing classes at various art societies in Melbourne (20 years at GECAG) and regularly demonstrates and facilitates workshops, both here and overseas. Maxine shows her work at the Victorian Artists' Society in East Melbourne. In 2020 she published her watercolour instruction book "Watercolour Warfare". Her next solo exhibition is at the Malvern Artists' Society gallery in June 2025.
